Hi All,

Buick Meeting Notes for Saturday, October 7, 2023:

- Meeting attendance: 11 people attended the breakfast meeting today
- Members' news:
  - Tom still has a number of cars for sale, and recently added his 1925 Ford Model T to the list. This is a later Model T as they went out of production in May, 1927
  - Alden and Phyllis Elshof haven't attended the breakfast recently, so if you know them, and are in their neck of the woods in Longmont, please stop by and pay them a visit. The club is thinking of you!
- Annual Club Christmas Party

- Please have payment to Tim by October 31st, All Hallows Eve
- Price: Adults $73, Children $44.25 which includes the show ticket, meal, gratuity, and program
- Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Saturday December 16th, 11:30am, at the Candlelight Dinner Playhouse
- Lunch is served at 12:00 and show begins at 1:30
- The club has the mezzanine reserved, elevators are available
- Club Merchandise
  - Mike has four additional caps for sale at $20 each
  - If anyone still needs a shirt, please contact Mike asap so he can close out the project with the vendor
- Annual Club Picnic
  - By all accounts a big success! Thanks Tim for organizing!
  - 34 attendees, 15 classic cars, beautiful weather, and a great potluck lunch buffet and locally fried chicken
  - Please see the color pictures in the printed newsletter that were taken by John D.
  - The club picnic has officially been penciled in for next September!
- Treasurer's Report
  - Revenue of $463 ($365 consisted of Christmas party payments), expenses of $148.91, resulting in a temporary balance of $999.17 (no money has been paid to the Candlelight Dinner Theater as of yet)
  - John D. won the lucky buck drawing. $19 to John and $19 to the club.
- Local Car Shows
  - Longmont Cars and Coffee is still taking place, with a show next weekend
  - Lafayette Cars and Coffee is also still going on
- Next up
  - Next club meeting is on Saturday Nov. 4th, with Ken Kafka's Fall Open House immediately following

Best Regards,
Ken J.
